

A Voice Out Of Heaven

George L. Pike Sr.

George L. Pike Sr.

1. Some - times, when ev' - ry - thing - looks to ro - sy, and it's
 2. To - day, ev' - ry - thing may be in your fa - vor, and ev' -
 3. I'll leave you some - thing, folks, to re - mem - ber, as I

3
 spring - time all a - round, Til the ry - thing's go - ing smooth, But jour - ney on my way, Just a 5

 sea - son chang - es, cold winds start blow - ing and with - out God, un - ex - pect - ed chang - es make lit - tle bit of sun - shine from heav - en to 7

 you some times feel let down, We long for the scent of the you lose your shoes, I'd hate to be just a help you day by day, An - y time your cross 10

sweet hon - ey suck - les and the smell of the sweet shrub hun - gry beg - gar, and be with out a seems too heav - y, and you can not car - ry

12

trees, For all of a sud - den we bed, Un - less we're walk - ing and on, Just turn your trou - bled

14

don't un - der stand what hap - pend to the birds and the talk - ing with Je - sus, you don't know what's a heart up to heav - en, 'cause God's still on the 16

Chorus:

bees, I just heard a voice speak out of heav - en, and it head, throne.

20

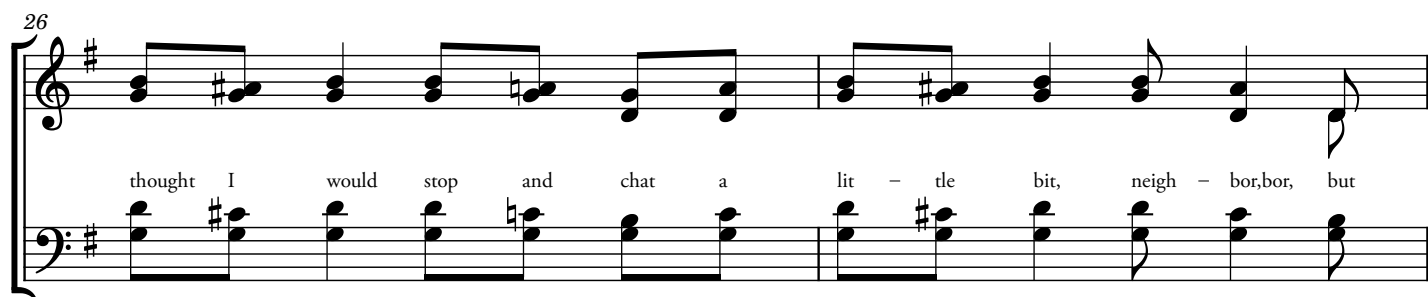

told me what to do, "Go out in - to the high - ways and the hedg - es, and tell My peo - ple the truth." I thought I would stop and chat a lit - tle bit, neigh - bor, bor, but

23

26

28

I don't want to in - trude, Firend, if you fell that 31

you're too bus - y, tthen I won't both - er you.