

Lazarus And The Rich Man

George L. Pike Sr.

George L. Pike Sr.

1 2 3 4

1. — Have you heard the sto - ry, of how Laz - a - rus of
2. As God be - held the rich - man, con - sid - er - ing the
3. It was too late for him to pray, his glo - ry now was

5 6 7 8

old, Plead - ed with the rich man, who had great wealth un - wrong, That he had done to Laz - a - rus, the rich man was de - gone, At last he learned he could not buy, the right to heav - en's

9 10 11

told, crumbs up - on the tab - le, that throned, begged and cried for mer - cy, for the throne, he had reached the gate - way, be -

12 13 14

fell up - on the floor, Was all that Laz - a - crimes that he had done, But he Laz - a - yond where Je - sus saves, And so he died an

15 16 17 Chorus:

rus re - ceived, while the dogs there _____ licked his sores.
could not come there to die dogs cool his _____ parch - ing tongue. He's aw - ful death, to lie down in a sin - ner's grave.

18 19 20 21

gone to be in a ju - bi - lee, far be - yond the sky, Where

22 23 24 25

saints are shout - ing vic - tor - ry, and the soul shall nev - er die,

26 27 28 29

All his pains and trou - bles are o'er, since Je - sus took his hand,

30 31 32 33

For the God who loved him, took him to the prom - ised land.